This issues with the prior concurrence of the Finance Department obtained vide U.O. 2121-Fin (c) A (3) 7/78, dated 25-11-1982.

ANNEXURE 'A'

T. A. AND D. A. TO THE NON-OFFICIAL MEMBERS

1. Travelling Allowance:

(i) Journey by rail.—They will be treated at par with Government servants of the first grade and will be entitled to actually used but not exceeding the fare to which the Government servants of the first grade are normally entitled i. e. accommodation of the highest class, by whatever name it may be called, provided on the railways by which the journey is performed.

(ii) Journey by road.—They will be entitled to actual fare for travelling by taking a single seat in a public bus and if the journey is performed by motor-cycle/scooter, mileage allowance at 40 paise per km for plain areas and 53 paise per km. for hilly areas and if the journey is performed by own car/full taxi the member will be entitled to mileage allowance at Rs. 1.30 per km in respect of the journeys in the plains and at Rs. 1.65 per kilometre in the hills (which rates are inclusive of elements of 33½ per cent increase for Himachal Pradesh).

(iii) In addition to the actual fare or mileage as per item (i) and (ii) above a member shall draw daily allowance for the entire absence from his permanent place of residence starting with departure from such residence and ending with arrival back at that place at the same rate and subject to the same terms and conditions as apply to Grade-I Officers of the State Government under the extent instructions and rules on the subject.

2. Daily Allowance :

(i) Non-official members will be entitled to draw daily allowance for each day of the meeting at the highest rate as admissible to a Government servant of the First Grade for the respective locality.

(ii) In addition to daily allowance for the day(s) of the meeting, a member shall also be entitled to daily allowance for halt on tour at out-station in connection with the affairs of the Committee as under:—

(a) If the absence from headquarters does not exceed 6 hours	.. Nil.
(b) If the absence from headquarters exceeds 6 hours but does not exceed 12 hours	.. 70%.
(c) If the absence from headquarters exceeds 12 hours	.. Full.

3. Conveyance Allowance:

A member, resident at a place where the meeting of the Committee is held will not be entitled to travelling and daily allowances on the scales indicated above but will be allowed only the actual cost of conveyance hired subject to a maximum of Rs. 10.00 per day. Before the claim is actually paid by the Controlling Officer should verify the claims and satisfy himself after obtaining such details as may be considered necessary that the actual expenditure was not less than the amount claimed.

If such a member uses his own car, he will be granted mileage allowance at the rate admissible to officials of the First Grade subject to a maximum of Rs. 10.00 per day.

4. The travelling and daily allowances will be admissible to member on production of a certificate by him to the effect that he has not drawn any travelling or daily allowance for the same journey and halts from any other Government source.

5. The members will be eligible for travelling allowance for the journey actually performed in connection with the meeting of the Committee from and back to the place of their permanent residence to be named in advance. If any member performs a journey from a place other than the place of his permanent residence after the termination of the meeting, travelling allowance shall be worked out on the basis of the distance actually travelled or the distance between the place of permanent residence and the venue of the meeting whichever is less.

6. The provision of rules 4.17 and 6.1 of the Himachal Pradesh Treasury Rules will apply mutatis mutandis in the case of over-payment made on account of travelling allowance to non-official members.

7. Members of Vidhan Sabha.—(i) The non-official members who is member of the Vidhan Sabha shall be entitled to T.A./D.A. in respect of journeys performed in connection with the work of the Committee on the scale as is admissible to them under "Salaries and Allowances of Members of Legislative Assembly Act," as amended from time to time.

(ii) The members will not be entitled to daily allowance in connection with their assignment when the Vidhan Sabha or the Vidhan Sabha Committee on which the member is serving is in the Session as he will be drawing his daily allowance under the Salaries and Allowances of Members of the Legislative Assembly (H.P.) Act, 1971, from the Vidhan Sabha. However, if he certifies that he was prevented from attending the Session of the House or the Vidhan Sabha Committee and did not draw any daily allowance from the Vidhan Sabha, he would be entitled to daily allowance at the rate as prescribed.

(iii) The member will also not draw T. A / D. A. including conveyance allowance which will disqualify him from the Vidhan Sabha.

9. Members of Parliament.—The member of Parliament on the Grievances-cum-Food and Supplies Advisory Committee in respect of the journey performed by him by rail, road, air and steamer in connection with the works of the Committee, shall be entitled to T.A./D.A. on the same scale as is admissible to him under 'Salaries and Allowances of Members of Parliament Act' as amended from time to time.

The provision of rules 4.17 and 6.1 of the Himachal Pradesh Treasury Rules will apply mutatis mutandis in the case of over-payment made on account of Travelling Allowances to non-official members.

HIMACHAL PRADESH HIGH COURT

NOTIFICATION

Shimla, the 14th March, 1983

No. H.H.C. Admn. 18-4/74.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 304 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Act No. 2 of 1974), the High Court of Himachal Pradesh with the previous approval of the Government of Himachal Pradesh, hereby makes the following rules namely:—

PART I

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the "Himachal Pradesh Legal Aid to Accused at State Expense Rules, 1983".

(2) They shall come into force from the date of their publication in the Himachal Pradesh Rajpatra.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "Advocate" means a person enrolled under the Advocates' Act, 1961, and entitled as of right to practice in the Courts subordinate to the High Court.

(b) "Court" means a Court of Sessions whether presided over by a Sessions Judge, Additional Sessions Judge, Assistant Sessions Judge.

(c) "Code" means the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

PART II

3. Authority to decide means of accused to engage counsel.—(1) When in a case instituted on a Police Report or otherwise, the accused is committed to the Court of Sessions for trial under section 209 of the Code, the Magistrate on such enquiry as he may deem fit, shall simultaneously make a report to the Sessions Judge whether the accused was represented by a counsel in the proceedings before him and whether the accused has sufficient means to engage a counsel for his defence.

(2) If on the report of the Magistrate or otherwise, the Court is satisfied that the accused has not sufficient means to engage an advocate for his defence, the Court shall assign an advocate for his defence at the expense of the State.

PART III

4. Panel of Advocates for legal aid and the mode of selection.—(1) The Sessions Judge, after consultation with the Additional Sessions Judge, and if there be no Additional Sessions Judge then with the Chief Judicial Magistrate, and the President of the District

Bar Association, shall prepare and maintain a panel of 10 to 15 suitable advocates willing to appear for the undefended accused at State expense in the trials before the Court of Sessions.

(2) The person to be included in the panel shall have at least a standing of 5 years as a practising advocate:

Provided that a person to be included in the panel shall indicate his willingness to serve on the panel to the Sessions Judge.

(3) The appointment of the advocate shall be made from panel so constituted, but in exceptional circumstances and for reasons to be recorded, it may be made from outside the panel.

(4) The panel shall ordinarily be revised after every two years in the month of April.

(5) A person on the panel may intimate in writing to the Sessions Judge to remove his name from the panel. He shall, however, be eligible for being included again in the panel.

(6) Where in a Sessions trial, there are more than one accused, one advocate ordinarily will be assigned for them unless they put forward antagonistic defence, or there are special reasons, to be recorded in writing, for engaging more than one counsel for the defence of the accused.

(7) The advocate appointed as a defence counsel may retire during the trial if and when the accused engages a lawyer of his own choice:

Provided that if there are more than one accused and all of them have not engaged an advocate of their own choice, such advocate shall continue to represent the accused who has not engaged his own counsel.

(8) If an advocate whose name has been included in the panel and who after accepting the assignment neglects or refuses to discharge his duty without reasonable cause, the Sessions Judge shall remove his name from the panel and appoint another advocate in his place.

PART IV

5. Facilities to be extended to the advocates from the panel.—The appointment of an advocate as defence counsel shall be made as soon as possible and in any case before the charge is framed. He shall be furnished free of costs copies of depositions of all witnesses examined during the trial and allowed free inspection of the record of the case.

PART V

6. Scale of fees.—(1) The ordinary fee payable to an advocate engaged for the defence of the accused charged with the commission of an offence punishable with death or imprisonment for life shall be Rs. 100/- per day, subject to maximum of Rs. 600/- for the case, as the Sessions Judge may decide in each case tried by him or on the basis of the recommendations of the Additional Sessions Judge trying the case.

(2) No fee shall be payable for a day on which the case is adjourned without any proceedings being taken by the Court.

7. An advocate engaged at State expense shall, at the conclusion of each day of hearing in the case, prepare and submit for counter-signatures by the Presiding Officer of the Court a diary containing details as set out in the Schedule attached to these rules.

8. The advocate appointed from the panel shall not receive any fees from the accused for whom he is appointed by the Court.

9. The advocate shall submit his bill of fees to the Sessions Judge with in a month of the disposal of the case by the Court alongwith the diary mentioned in Rule 7 of these Rules, and a certificate to the effect that he has not charged anything from the accused for whom he was appointed by the Court.

10. The Sessions Judge shall be the Controlling officer for the payment and audit of fees due to advocates appointed under these rules.

PART VI

11. Repeal.—The Himachal Pradesh Legal Aid to Accused at State Expense Rules, 1979 are hereby repealed.
